Abstract Submission - General Guidelines and Regulations

Call for Abstracts and Abstract Submission Guidelines

The EAACI Scientific Programme Committee welcomes the submission of original contributions for abstracts at the EAACI Beijing Allergy School 2026 & PUMCH Allergy Symposium (2026 Spring).

DEADLINE:

27 February 2026 (Friday) at 16:59 Central European Time (CET)

27 February 2026 (Friday) at 23:59 China Standard Time (CST)

EAACI does not charge any fee for regular abstract submission. Abstracts can only be submitted on the online platform on the EAACI Beijing Allergy School 2026 & PUMCH Allergy Symposium (Spring 2026) website. Abstracts submitted via email, post or fax will not be accepted.

1. General information

1.1 Instructions to authors

Carefully read the guidelines below before submitting your abstract:

Abstracts not adhering to EAACI Abstract Submission – _General Guidelines and Regulations will be rejected.

The final decision about acceptance of an abstract will be taken by the EAACI Scientific Programme Committee. EAACI does not communicate, nor enter into correspondence on the reason for acceptance or rejection of an abstract.

Upon submission, a confirmation email will be sent to the submitter's email address. If you do not receive the confirmation e-mail, please do not submit the abstract again. Instead, please contact the Scientific Secretariat abstract2026@eaacibjallergyschool.com for advice. All further communication will be ONLY with the presenting author that has been indicated during the abstract submission.

1.2 Submission categories

Abstracts can be submitted on the different topics shown on the EAACI website.

1.3 Declaration of conflict of interest

EAACI is committed to ensuring the integrity of scientific, educational, and research programmes. Abstract submission requires disclosure of any financial or other interest that might be construed as resulting in an actual, potential, or apparent conflict. The submitter is responsible for obtaining disclosure information from all co-authors, to be entered in the author section of the submission page.

2. Submission guidelines

2.1 Technical requirements

2.1.1 Personal Page

You can edit your abstracts until the submission deadline on 27 February 2026 (Friday) , 16:59 CET.

2.1.2 Abstract language and length

Abstracts and presentations must be written in English. The maximum length allowed for an abstract is 2500 characters (approximately 350 words) including blank spaces. The abstract title, the author(s) or names of institutions are not included in the count of 2500 characters.

2.1.3 Tables and Figures

If appropriate one table and/or one figure (charts, diagrams and statistical overviews uploaded as a picture) are allowed. Please do not upload any kind of patient pictures.

Accepted file formats are .jpg / .png / .gif. Your file should not exceed 3000 KB (3MB).

2.1.4 Abstract structure and content

To make the abstract as informative as possible, we require a brief statement of the purpose of the study and/or the underlying hypotheses (background), the method used, the results observed, and the conclusions based upon the results. Abstracts without results will be rejected. It is inadequate to state

"The results will be discussed" or "The data will be presented".

2.1.5 Tradenames

Trade names are not allowed as well as copyright and trademark symbols. Non-proprietary (generic) names of drugs, written in lower case, are required the first time a drug is mentioned in the text. References, credits or the authors' academic degrees or grant support are not to be included in the abstract. Standard abbreviations may be employed in the text. Place special or unusual abbreviations in parentheses after the full wording at the first time it appears in the body of the text. Company names and logos are not allowed in the title but can be named in the authors' affiliation.

2.1.6 Consent for publication of individual patient data - applies to abstracts with identifiable patient

For all abstracts that include identifiable patient details (e.g. gender, age, illness, location) or images, it is the author's responsibility to obtain written informed consent for publication of clinical details and/or clinical images from the patient/parent/guardian/relative of the patient. A respective statement needs to be included in the abstract text.

2.1.7 Duplication of publications

Unpublished abstracts that have been presented at a different scientific meeting within a 12 months period prior to EAACI Beijing Allergy School 2026 & PUMCH Allergy Symposium (2026 Spring), provided they contain updated/additional data, can be submitted and will be considered for presentation. Abstracts submitted for publication or to a scientific meeting, but are pending acceptance, can be submitted without restrictions. However, once the abstract has been accepted by EAACI it is automatically subject to the EAACI embargo policy (2.3.6).

2.2 Abstract presentation

2.2.1 Presentation formats

Accepted abstracts selected by expert reviewers will be presented in any of the following sessions: Oral Abstract Sessions (OAS), Flash Talk Sessions (FTS), Thematic Poster Sessions (TPS), E-TPS Display Only. OAS, FTS and TPS will be onsite only, E-TPS Display only does not require onsite presentation.

It is the author's responsibility to submit a correct abstract. Any errors in spelling, grammar or scientific fact will be reproduced as typed by the author as no editing or proofreading will be done by EAACI. Please note that each year a number of abstracts are rejected because of poor English or because they contain no or incomplete data.

For clinical studies, clinical trials or translational research abstract submissions, the presenting author can be any of the listed authors, but without affiliations to industry.
For basic research abstract submissions, the presenting author can be any of the listed authors.

2.2.2 Oral Abstract Session

The Oral Abstract Sessions (OAS) consist of oral presentations onsite followed by discussion. As presenter you are required to prepare a MS PowerPoint presentation featuring the main findings of your work. An email with detailed information will be sent to the presenting author in due course.

2.2.3 Flash Talk Session

The Flash Talk Sessions (FTS) consist of short presentations onsite followed by discussion.
As presenter you are required to prepare a MS PowerPoint presentation featuring the main findings of your work. An email with detailed information will be sent to the presenting author in due course.

2.2.4 Thematic poster session

The Thematic Poster Session (TPS) will take place onsite during the congress days. All posters will be presented in guided poster discussion sessions. The poster presenters will stand by their posters throughout the entire poster session and will be prepared to deliver a "two-minute take home message".

The posters included in the Thematic poster sessions can be found in the e-poster section of the digital platform as a digital poster. Your PDF will be made available on the digital congress platform, allowing the participants to view it during the whole event.

Prior to the event, you are required to upload the poster in the designated system provided to you. An email with detailed information and the link to upload your poster will be sent to the presenting author in due course.

2.2.5 E-Thematic Poster Session Display Only

The E-TPS Display Only will be available for Display Only on the congress online digital platform and will not be included in the Allergy Journal.

2.2.6 Poster Size and Format

Detailed instructions for the preparation of visual presentations and posters will be made available on the EAACI website in May.

2.3 Abstract instructions

2.3.1 Notification of acceptance

Notifications of acceptance or rejection of the abstracts will be sent to the presenting author of the abstract by 5 March 2026 (Thursday).

The notification letter will be sent ONLY to the presenting author that has been indicated during the abstract submission.

With the notification of acceptance, abstract presenters will be informed about the format. EAACI cannot guarantee that presenting authors who do not show up to present their abstract will be accepted for abstract presentations at future congresses. These “no-shows” are refused for publication on the Allergy Journal and the EAACI content platforms.

2.3.2 Registration

The presenting author of an abstract must register for the onsite congress. Until March 10, 2026 the presenting author is offered a special extended “early fee”. The registration fee may be refunded if the abstract is rejected. Please note that some countries require a visa to visit China.

IMPORTANT! The presenting author must be registered using the same email address which was used for the abstract submission. This is to ensure that the abstract and registration can be matched. If the presenting author is not registered by March 10, 2026 and/or the email addresses used do not match, the abstract will be removed from the congress programme.

2.3.3 Publication of abstracts

Accepted abstracts will be published in the online programme, EAACI website and EAACI content platforms during the Congress. Publication of the abstracts as a supplement in the Allergy Journal will be done after the congress. Please note that your abstract will only be published in the Allergy journal if the abstract is accepted, presented, and the presenting author is registered. Kindly note that all abstracts selected for E-TPS Display Only will NOT be published on the EAACI content platforms nor in the Allergy Journal.

2.3.4 No-show policy

Submission of an abstract constitutes a formal commitment by the author(s) to present the work if accepted. If a presenting author of an accepted abstract does not show up to present their abstract, he/she risks jeopardizing future acceptance at other EAACI Congresses and Events, if not justified (withdrawn). These abstracts will be excluded from publication in the Allergy Journal and on the EAACI content platforms.

2.3.5 Withdrawal of an abstract

If you need to withdraw your abstract, a written statement listing the reasons for this decision must be sent to the EAACI Scientific Secretariat no later than March 10, 2026 (abstract2026@eaacibjallergyschool.com). Withdrawals after this date cannot be accepted.

2.3.6 Abstract Embargo

Accepted abstracts are made available to the public on the EAACI content platforms, EAACI website and on the EAACI App on Friday, 01 May 2026 at 09:00 China Standard Time (CST). Hence, the embargo is lifted on Friday, 01 May 2026 at 09:00 China Standard Time (CST) and can be reported from that time onwards. All presented abstracts (except "E-TPS Display Only") will also be published in the Allergy Journal after the EAACI Congress. EAACI and Wiley hold copyright of all accepted abstracts for the EAACI Congress and therefore abstracts cannot be made public prior to official release. Copyright is only lifted if the abstract is not accepted for publication in the Allergy Journal after the EAACI Congress. Violation of the embargo may result in the abstract being withdrawn from the congress and/or other measures deemed appropriate. It is not considered a violation of the embargo if an abstract or information thereof is presented elsewhere or is part of a manuscript that has already been submitted, if acceptance is still pending at the time of the regular abstract submission deadline.

2.3.7 Copyright

By submitting your abstract to the EAACI Congress 2026 you are agreeing to the transfer of the copyright to EAACI/Wiley.

EAACI copyright is only lifted if the abstract is not accepted for publication in the Allergy Journal after the congress.
The submission of abstracts accepted for EAACI Congress 2026 and published in the Allergy Journal, requires the permission of EAACI/Wiley as copyright holder. Requests must be done via the Wiley online system.

Commercial data mining of abstracts published in the Allergy Journal requires the permission of EAACI/Wiley and approval must be sought before inception of the project via the Wiley online system.

2.3.8 Data Privacy

By certifying that you have read these submission rules, you also confirm having received the prior approval from the co-authors to provide their data to the EAACI Beijing Allergy School 2026 & PUMCH Allergy Symposium (2026 Spring).

The information collected in this call for abstract submission is subject to data processing to proceed with the elaboration of the Scientific Programme during the EAACI Beijing Allergy School 2026 &

PUMCH Allergy Symposium (2026 Spring).

Provision of personal data is a statutory requirement to list the authors who have contributed to research submitted. Authors not listed in the submission will not be acknowledged in the abstract, if accepted for publication on the EAACI content platforms or the Allergy Journal or presentation at the Congress.

Your personal data will be shared with EAACI, CYIM, the EAACI Committees, and abstract reviewers involved in the abstract selection for the EAACI Beijing Allergy School 2026 & PUMCH Allergy Symposium (2026 Spring). Transfer of personal data to contractors as well as EAACI related scientific organisations may occur for production, promotion and dissemination of congress content.

In accordance with the chapter 3 of the European Regulation 2016/679 with regards to data protection, you have the right to request EAACI access, rectification or erasure of your personal data, restriction or object to processing as well as the right to data portability. This is one thru withdrawal of the abstract according to the terms and conditions of withdrawal. For such, please contact (together with a proof of identity):

European Academy of Allergy and Clinical Immunology (EAACI)
Hagenholzstrasse 111
CH-8050 Zurich
Or by email to: abstract2026@eaacibjallergyschool.com

2.3.9 Abstract Review

All abstracts will be blinded for review by a minimum of 3 members of the abstract review committee. All the reviewers have been selected by the Scientific Programme Committee to review abstracts in their category that best fits their expertise.

EAACI aims for good quality of science without compromising scientific integrity.

The abstract reviewers are required to identify abstracts pertaining to commercial promotion of a proprietary product or data originating from the same study across several abstracts in order to notify the Scientific Programme Committee for further action.

Please note that the final decisions regarding acceptance of the submitted abstract will be made by the Scientific Programme Committee. No rescheduling or changes by the submitters will be possible once the abstract deadline is closed.
